Property Tax Limitation Agreement Applications
Texas Government Code Chapter 313
Confidential Information submitted to the Comptroller

Generally, an application for property tax value limitation, the information provided therein, and documents submitted in support thereof, are considered public information subject to release under the Texas Public Information Act. There is an exception, outlined below, by which information will be withheld from disclosure:

The Comptroller's office will withhold information from public release if it 1) describes the specific processes or business activities to be conducted or the specific tangible personal property to be located on real property covered by the application; 2) the information has been segregated in the application from other information in the application; and 3) the party requesting confidentiality provides the Comptroller's office specific reasons, including any relevant legal authority, stating why the material is believed to be confidential. All applications and parts of applications which are not segregated and marked as confidential as outlined above will be considered public information.

Such information properly identified as confidential will be withheld from public release unless and until the governing body of the school district acts on the application or we are directed to do so by a ruling from the Attorney General. Other information in the custody of a school district or the comptroller in connection with the application, including information related to the economic impact of a project or the essential elements of eligibility under Texas Tax Code, Chapter 313, such as the nature and amount of the projected investment, employment, wages, and benefits, will not be considered confidential business information if the governing body of the school district agrees to consider the application.

All documents submitted to the Comptroller, as well as all information in the application once the school district acts thereon, are subject to public release unless specific parts of the application or documents submitted with the application are identified as confidential. Any person seeking to limit disclosure of such submitted records is advised to consult with their legal counsel regarding disclosure issues and also to take the appropriate precautions to safeguard copyrighted material, trade secrets, or any other proprietary information. The Comptroller assumes no obligation or responsibility relating to the disclosure or nondisclosure of information submitted by respondents. A person seeking to limit disclosure of information must submit in writing specific detailed reasons, including any relevant legal authority, stating why that person believes the material to be confidential.

Applicant name:

ISD Name:

The following outlines how the Comptroller's office will handle requests for information submitted under the Texas Public Information Act for application portions and submitted records appropriately identified as confidential. This office shall forward the request for records and a copy of the documents at issue to the Texas Attorney General's office for an opinion on whether such information may be withheld from disclosure under the Texas Public Information Act. The Comptroller will notify the person who submitted the application/documents when the information is forwarded to the Attorney General's office. Please be aware that this Office is obligated to comply with an Attorney General's decision, including release of information ruled public even if it was marked confidential.
